President's Message

Rebecca Dahlke

It's summer time and the living around Hereford and Sierra Vista sure hasn't been easy! First it was fire, then mudslides! Our sweet little gallery is still standing, for which we are all very grateful.

What is the one art event every year that is highly anticipated by our local community? Why Art in the Park, Sierra Vista, of course. And this year, it will be more successful than ever for our artists, artisans and craftspeople... and do you know why? Because, gas is high, the economy is slow and everyone is happy to look forward to a 'staycation' at Art in the Park instead of leaving the area.

I'm also pleased to say that I have a nice list of volunteers who've stepped forward to be our pollsters at Art in the Park. They are: Harlan and Sandra White, Lois Bravo, Sue Olivo, Bob & Pat Norquist, Jinx Schwartz, Elizabeth Line, Dave & Linda Hinkel and Jan Huthoefer. With this many volunteers we'll get to all of our vendors for comments, recommendations and, of course, that promise to signup early next year!

Happy creating everyone!

President Rebecca P. Dahlke

Reception
September 3, 4-6:00 P.M.

Angus Bowie Wilson was born in Glasgow, Scotland. He served a five-year apprenticeship as a plumber and then graduated as Master Plumber.

In 1952 Angus and Joan were married. Then Angus served two years in the Royal Air Force for National Service, and while in the service, he attended the School of Art in Dundee, Scotland. He also studied with a private art tutor in Saint Andrew, Scotland.

In 1962, Angus and his family emigrated to the USA and in 1968 settled in Sierra Vista where Angus started his plumbing business. He gave the business up in 1984 and joined Brown and Root as a project manager.

Angus studied with Dale Boatman for several years, joined the Huachuca Art Association in 1970, and served as president of the association for two and one-half years. He retired in 2001 and has been a full-time artist since then, painting mainly landscapes and also some western scenes with horses and such.

Angus works in several mediums including watercolor, oil, acrylic, casein and pastels. He has paintings in Scottish locations and all over the US. He has won numerous prizes including Best of Show at Tubac Art Association, Huachuca Art Association and Tombstone Association. Two workshops were given for members of the HAA.
